

Dr. Sameh Soliman

Dr. Sameh Soliman is an Associate professor of Ophthalmology at the University of Alexandria, Egypt. After completing his ophthalmology residency in Alexandria Egypt in 2007, he was interested in Pediatric ophthalmology, mainly pediatric ocular oncology and Retinoblastoma. Dr. Soliman embarked a professional improvement journey spanning across Egypt, Switzerland and Canada under the supervision of great mentors as Dr. Brenda Gallie, Francis Munier and Nihal Elshakankiry. Dr. Soliman obtained both a master's degree and Ph.D. in Ophthalmology in 2007 and 2012 respectively. He has conducted clinical research throughout his career, studying meticulously outcomes from different angles and setting guidelines on how to proceed efficiently. This was translated to multiple research projects and over 35 peer reviewed publications.